Mr. Baker rejoined that he "could take it as he pleased." Smythe, who is as big and bony as Ned O'Baldwin, thereupon struck Baker on the side of the head with his fist, knocking him down against the partition separating the counting room from the sanctum. Mr. James Taney, who was a witness to the scene, caught hold of Smythe who remained in his first position watching laker, thinking that he would probably draw his revolver. Taney did not offer violence, but told Smythe that he was doing wrong, which, probably had a depressing effect upon the Moundsville editor, as he immediately vareated the building. He was followed to the door, he says, by Baker, who in a very amicable manner suggested that possibly both parties had been mistaken. THE New St. Alphonsus Hall.—In company with Mr. Charles R. Behler we yesterday visited the new St. Alphonsus hall, which is being freecoed by Mesars.

J. S. Vogle & Co., of Pittsburgh. The ceiling is about completed, but as the scaffolding had not been removed we could only catch occasional glimpses of the beauties above. The artists are apparently partial to flowers, as there is a profusion of Nature's choicest floral gifts displayed with much skill and taste. There is no particular design in the freecoing, but the different colors harmonize well; said the lowers, lamiscapes, etc., are gifts to mature. There are eight landscapes, a Swiss cottage scene, a winter scene and an Egyptian scene being especially noticeable. He was evidently disappointed that the Register took no notice of his "squib;" so he called at the Register office yesterday morning to compel a notice in some way. After discussing the matter a short time he left the office, and returned again in the course of an hour, apparently under the influence of something that had excited his brain. He produced a copy of his paper and demanded that Mr. Baker read his article, and point out the falsehood in it. The latter person laying the paper down on the counter, and standing with his head bent him reeling backward. The lick came from the fiel of the valiant Moundavillian, without warning and without his motions having been observed. Mr. Smythe then proceeded to explain that in his article he had not intended to cast any offensive reflections, and that probably he had been mininformed as to the facts.

"He afterwards went on the streets and to the other printing offices with his story—martyrizing himself greatly; hence we give the lacts as witnessed by two other partiess. Any other statement of the matter, by whomsoever made, is absolutely false, and this fact can be verified by competent winessees."

Mr. Smythe also called upon us, and gave us his version, which is in spitstance to the following effect:

While in the Registed office about 10 o'clock yesterday moraling, making a friendly call, Mr. Smythe was asked by Mr. Baker how a provincial paper happened to know so much about the feeling of the Democrats of Ohio county in reading a successor to Gen. Pannell, Mr. Smythe replied that he was frequently in the city, and his facilities were equally as good as those of the Register in obtaining the sentiments of the community. He then asked mujositisable attack upon the Committee in Fanythe's paper, and characterized it as "a.d.—d dirty slur." Mr. Smythe did not remember the paragraph referred to, but said be would produce a copy of his paper, and characterized it as "a.d.—d dirty slur." He then went to the office of Prosecuting Attorney Craceraft, and procuring a copy of the Gazdte returned to the Register office, and handing it to Mr. Baker requested him to point out the obnoxious lines.
